Bar No. 020092

ORDER RE: SUSPENSION

Respondent

(Honorable William J. O'Neil)

By separate Order of the Presiding Disciplinary Judge (PDJ), the Appeal of Respondent Rachel R. Alexander was dismissed on June 18, 2012. Ms. Alexander previously filed a Motion to Stay the Hearing Panel's Order that her license to practice law be suspended while she appealed to the Supreme Court. Independent Bar Counsel filed a statement of position of no objection to that stay under certain conditions. As a result the PDJ ordered that the Order and Judgment suspending Ms. Alexander's license to practice be stayed during her appeal of that order and judgment.

Now Therefore,

IT IS ORDERED: To enable an orderly disposition of Ms. Alexander's existing law practice, the order of the PDJ granting an interim stay will remain in effect until Monday July 23, 2012, at which time the stay will automatically dissolve without further order.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, that Respondent Rachel R. Alexander shall immediately notify her existing clients of this order and shall not accept any new clients pursuant to Rule 72 of the Ariz.R.Sup.Ct.

DATED 19th day of June, 2012,

William J. O'Neil
